

Leicester, May 18. 1840.

My dear Sir,

I hope you have reached your home safely & well.

On my return, I found that I had been in error in saying to you that my Father had informed me that the opponents of Mr. Pierpont had drawn up, & put on paper, their charges against him. A letter which I had received from Boston stated that there was a report to that effect, but this letter was not from my father. How I came to receive so incorrect an impression, I am at a loss to tell. I feel called upon to make this correction to you, lest my father should be supposed to have said what he never has said.

I found a number of New Organizationists in the Norwich boat on my return; and, from conversation with them, I find that there is no accusation, however mean or flagrant, which some of them are not ready to make against the old Massachusetts

Society, & its Board of Managers in particular. - Mr. St. Clair charged you, specifically, with dishonorable conducts, and appealed to a young man who sat by (Buffum by name) for his testimony respecting certain facts. Mr. Buffum said that you had informed him, some time since, that a great effort would be made, by the friends of the old Massachusetts Society, to get a large delegation to attend the Annual meeting this year in N. York; and that you said that if there were any who could not pay their own expenses to & fro, means would be raised <sup>by others</sup> to defray them. Mr. B. added that he made no charge <sup>against you</sup> of dishonorable conduct; but Mr. St. Clair did, distinctly, on the basis of the facts stated by Mr.
Buffum, adding that you had, unsuspectingly, discovered all your plots to this Mr. Buffum, whom you supposed, from his name, to be a friend of the old Society.

St. Clair made some further & worse charges against Mr. Garrison, & referred me for the proof to Mr. E. G. Loring, whom I shall shortly address on the subject.

Very respectfully Yours

Sam<sup>l</sup>. May
